

There is already too much consolidation of media ownership. This is a threat to the democratic process. The efficiency gained comes at much too high a price to the public. Chairman Powell seem highly arrogant in his unwillingness to let the public be heard on such an important issue. He is ignoring both the Congress and the public. He seems to be in the pocket of the industry he is supposed to be regulating. He should resign.